

Chapter 5

Calcutta

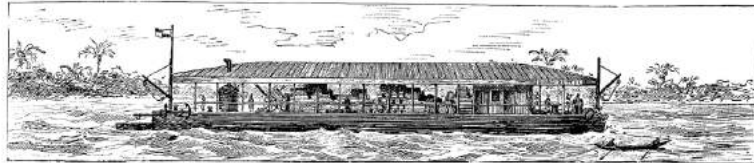

GOING UP THE HOOGLHY — THE "SERAPIS" PASSING THE KING OF OUDE'S PALACE

The Graphic, January 22, 1876

A trip in a "Flat" from Calcutta to Goalundo, up the Hooghly &
Ganges,
The Graphic, August 8
1885

THE STEAMER THAT BOWED US

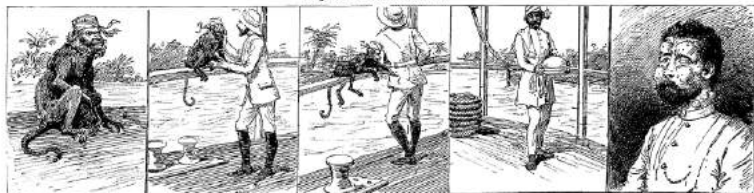

THE "FLAT," 250 FEET LONG

IN THE SALOON

IN THE BATHROOM — CLEARING OUT MOSQUITOES BEFORE GETTING A TUB

THE FLAT

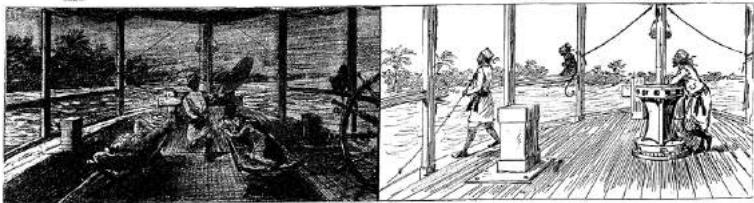

AN DISHONORABLE MEMBER OF THE CLUB

WITH WHOM I BARE FRIENDS

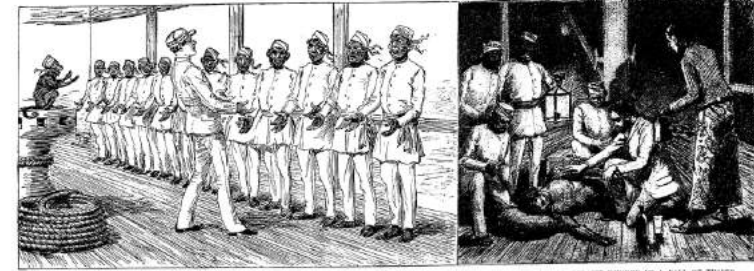

HE HAZED THINGS WITH US

"COCKROACH" OUR GENERAL ATTENDANT

ANFUL RESULT OF MAPPING WITH OUT MOSQUITO CURTAINS

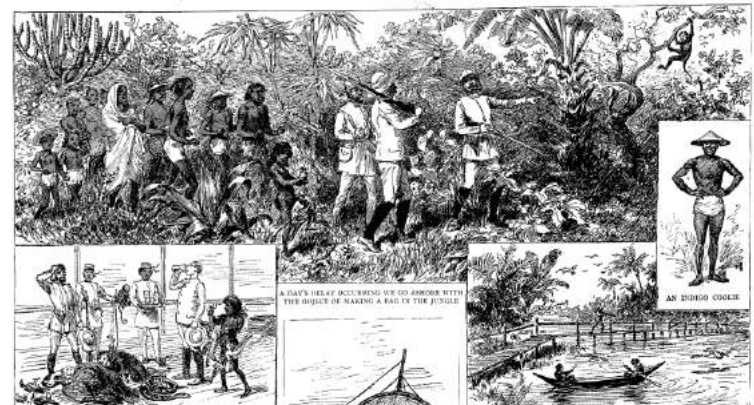

"GODDAM WALKER" (BRAMHIAN), THE HARDEST-WORKED MAN ON BOARD

THE CAUTIV AND HIS CREW

AMATEUR SURGERY — A KOLASSE INJURED BY A FALL OF TIMBER

A FLAT'S HEALTH OCCURRED UP TO US ASHORE WITH THE OBJECT OF MAKING A BAG IN THE JUNGLE

AN INDIGO COOLER

TOWING A KIBBO BY STREAM

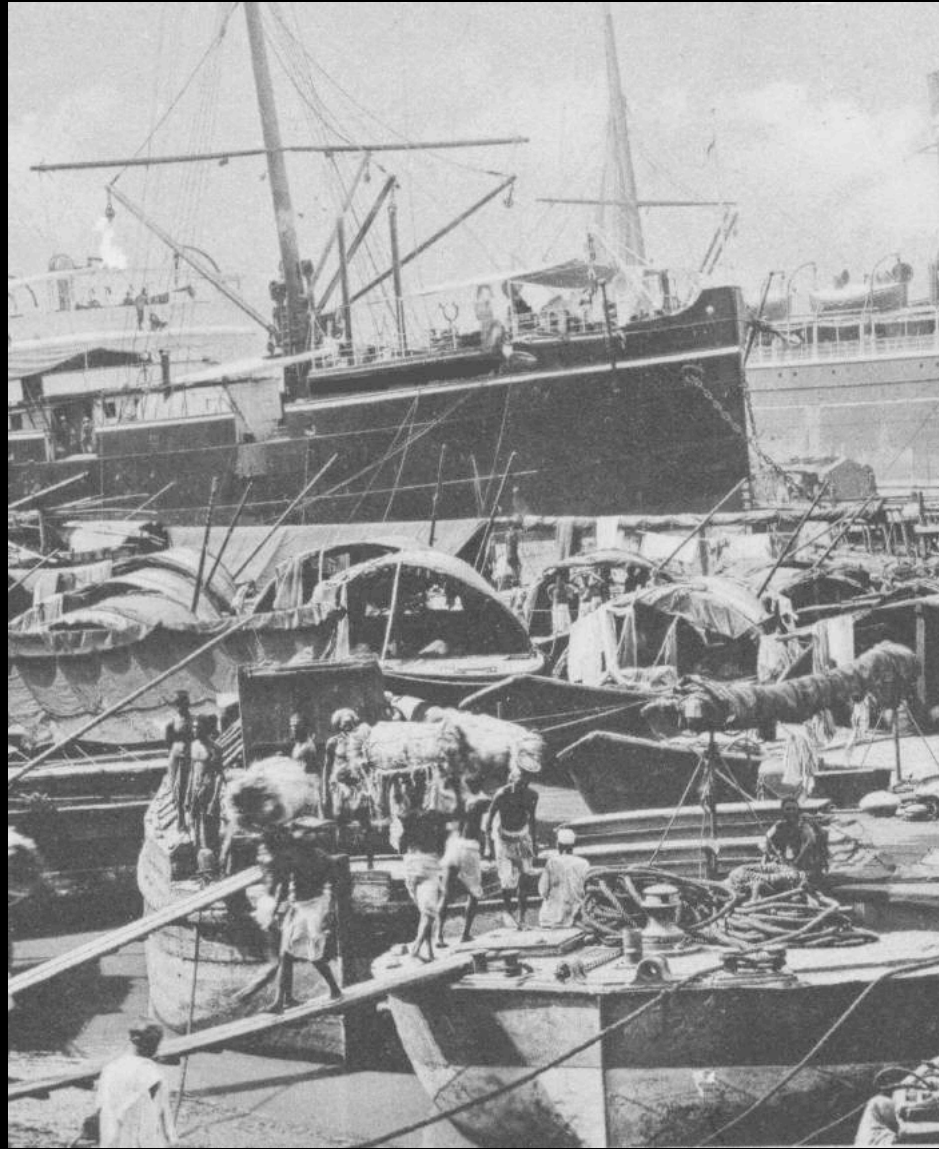

"COCKROACH" HEARD THE ALARMING STATEMENT THAT WE HAD REACHED THE LAST BATTLE OF 1884

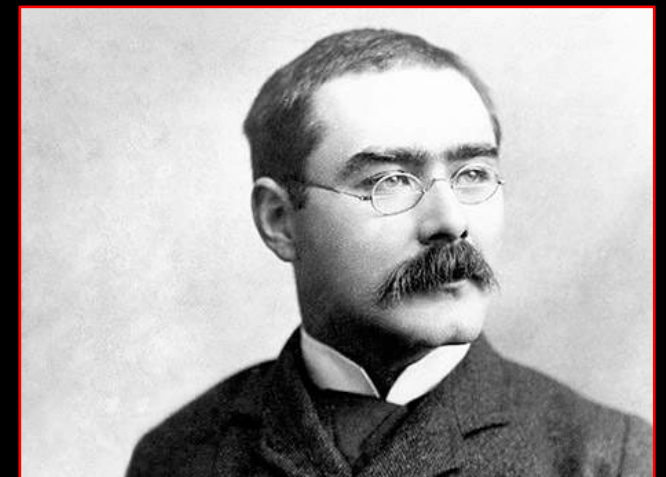

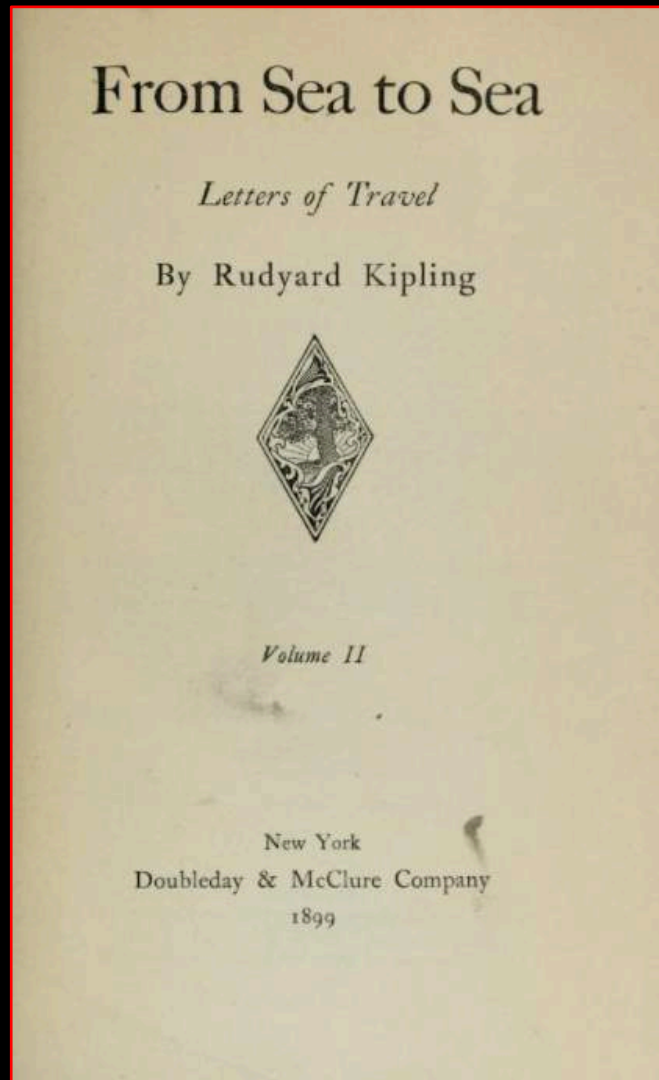

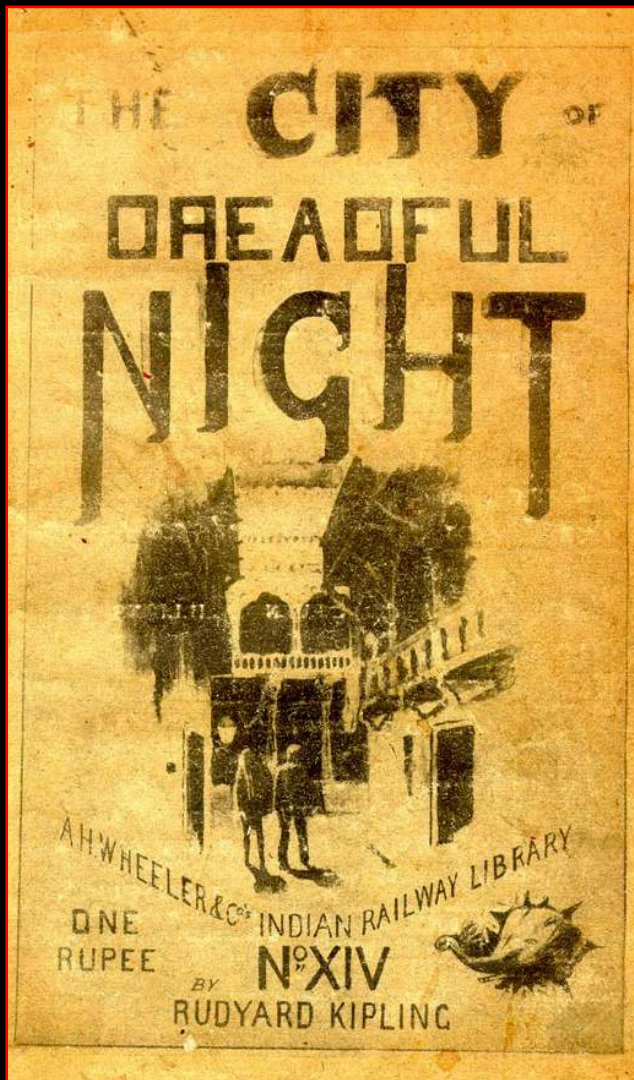

I LEAVE THE "FLAT," AND START FOR THE TRAY WITH AN INVALID

Calcutta: The River and Ships

Calcutta:
The River and Ships
Unloading

Kipling and his Work

The Autobiography of a Super-Tramp. By W.
H. Davies. With a Preface by Bernard Shaw.

Second Edition

London. A. C. Fifield,
44 Fleet Street, E.C.
1908

W.H. Davies and his book